Duane Michals in conversation with curator Lolita Cros at the HôtelAmericano

The latest event at HôtelAmericano's Salon Series celebrated the career of photographer Duane Michals, who elevated the medium by borrowing from cinema to create photographs that communicate a narrative. At the discussion on March 13, curator Lolita Cros spoke with Michals about politics, artistic inspiration, and the commodification of photography. Guests included Stefan Bondell, Edward De Luca, Scott Drevnig, Panos Galanopoulos, Sydie Lansing, Kristina Loggia, Tim Soter, and Emily Weiss.
